

Defence College of Aeronautical Engineering

Advanced Apprenticeship in Aeronautical Engineering

Background

NVQ Level 3 in Aeronautical Engineering
City & Guilds - Weapons/Avionics/Mechanical/Survival Equipment Maintenance
Key Skills including Improving Own Learning and Performance, Communication, Working With Others, Application of Number, Information Communication Technology and Problem Solving

Technical Certificate Level 3

Duration: 3 years

Centre Manager Comments

“The Aeronautical Engineering Apprenticeship is achieved over a period of 3 years and takes place during your Phase 2 training at the Defence College of Aeronautical Engineering Cosford As well as through practical assessment in the workplace by our verifiers located at 14 Main Operating Bases throughout the UK.”

Accreditation Group

“To deliver the best Aeronautical Apprenticeships assuring competent and qualified RAF aircraft engineering tradesmen who work effectively and safely in all theatres of operations”